Join us on December 16 at 7pm on Facebook Live to watch the dogs choose their own special toys and to see gifts delivered to the cats!

Dear Friends,

The holidays are a special time for everyone – people and pets. At the Brown County Humane Society, we believe that every pet deserves a special gift for the holidays. Currently we are caring for 15 dog & puppies and 65 cats and kittens, with more arriving each day. With your help, we will make each one of them feel extra special this holiday season.

Browse through the catalog to see what ten long-stay cats and dogs need and want for the holidays. Some gift ideas are very practical and much needed, helping to keep the little ones healthy and clean, and others are just for fun, to relieve the boredom and stress that some pets experience at the shelter.

Then tune in to a live Facebook post at 7pm on December 16, to watch the dogs pick out their favorite toys and see gifts delivered to the kitties.

Won't you help make each homeless pet's stay at the shelter a joyful one this holiday season?

Wishing you and your family a delightful holiday season,

Sue Ann Werling

Your gift will be doubled!

Thanks to Bone Dry Waterproofing, all wish list donations received will be doubled up to $10,000.

That means twice the wishes granted!

Infant Care Package $250

Puppies, like Tommy, and kittens need extra care and attention. They get several rounds of vaccines and dewormers, frequent medical check ups and all are spayed or neutered before going home. Tommy hopes you'll give a gift of infant care for all the babies to come.

Senior Care Package $500

Senior pets like Buster often need a little extra TLC to make them feel their best. Maybe that's arthritis medicine, extra soft bedding, dental work, or lump removals.

Whatever it takes, Buster thinks a gift to the seniors is the best way to show you care.

Yummy in the Tummy $150

Kittens like Irwin and Goodall grow fast and eat a lot! Starting with milk replacer and advancing to kitty chow, Irwin, Goodall and their siblings are wishing for a pantry full of kitty food for future babies. Being the kind kitties they are, they noted that puppies need puppy chow, too!

Spa Day Package $200

How embarrassing, Clark came to the shelter just after being sprayed by a skunk! A spa day was what he needed. Good smelling shampoo, a brisk brushing, clean ears and nail trim and Clark was feeling better! His wish is for every dog to have a spa day!

Snuggle Package $25

A little insecure upon arrival, Bella, thinks a cozy bed and plush stuffed toy will help make every pet feel safe and secure during their first days at the shelter. Your gift will help pets like Bella settle in comfortably.

Everyday Essentials $25

Kale agrees that the essentials aren't very flashy, but they are....essential! And needed at the shelter every day. His wish is that the shelter always has healthy food, fluffy blankets, comfy beds and a warm, quiet place to feel safe.

Toy Chest $50

Busy bee Dorothy, thinks every kitty should have their own feather toy, catnip mouse, jingle ball and tunnel to play in. Your gift to the toy chest will keep all the busy cats active and happy during their stay.

Boredom Buster Bundle $75

High energy dogs need lots of mental and physical exercise to keep them happy in the shelter. Luna thinks food puzzles, tennis balls, tug toys and lots of Kongs filled with peanut butter and treats make the best holiday gift.

Rest & Relaxation Basket $100

Clifford says you sure can't relax if you've got fleas crawling all over you, your hair is painfully matted and your toenails are poking into your pads. His idea of the best holiday gift is an R&R package complete with flea treatment, a good haircut, warm bath and manicure.

Welcome Basket $150

When first arriving at the shelter Otis wasn't sure what to expect. Receiving a welcome basket filled with life saving vaccinations, parasite control, a toy and a blanket to snuggle in gave Otis just the things he needed to get started right. All homeless pets deserve a Welcome Basket!
